Dear Colonel O'Brien:

The Community Counterintelligence and Security Countermeasures Office of the Intelligence Community Staff has just finished preparing the 1987 Multidisciplinary Counterintelligence Production Register. This Register consists of inputs from various agencies and departments in response to a standing National Security Council request to publish annually a compendium of available counterintelligence reports.

The work involved in this endeavor is time-consuming, arduous, and logistically complex. The document, in its published form, exceeds 175 pages. In 1987 a significant contribution to this document was made by the US Army Intelligence and Threat Analysis Center (USAITAC). The responsible individual for providing USAITAC's input to the Intelligence Community Staff was SGT Thomas D. Lunn. On several occasions, SGT Lunn demonstrated his ability to manage the various problems that arise when such an effort is undertaken. His cooperation and responsiveness were noteworthy.

Please pass on to SGT Lunn my appreciation for a job well done, and note that he is the only individual to receive such recognition in 1987.

Sincerely, /
